ELECTORAL COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE

SEARCHLIGHT'S HATE CAMPAIGN

Welcome to New TARGET issue number Thirty-Nine

For new readers, we view our task as demonstrating our opposition to Searchlight's policy of exposing and harassing political opponents and their families at their homes, in the street and at their workplaces. Since our conception, it has never been our intention to present political policies, but simply to demonstrate to Searchlight, and its supporters, that they too are vulnerable to the exposure tactics that they either employ, or support. While Searchlight continues to print photographs and personal details of political opponents, then New TARGET will reciprocate by publishing details of Searchlight supporters.

We would like to make it clear however, we would NOT wish to see any Searchlight supporters exposed by New TARGET being subjected to intimidation or harassment. But, all Searchlight supporters should be aware that, SELF-DEFENCE IS NO OFFENCE, and we will continue to defend ourselves by exposing them, until they condemn Searchlight's tactics, and assist us in defeating this evil.

Until Victory!

Owing to increased printing and postage costs we have been forced to increase the price of New TARGET. Discounts for bulk orders are still available on request.

THE CURSE OF SEARCHLIGHT HITS JON CRUDDAS DEPUTY-LEADERSHIP CAMPAIGN

It is now well known that many of those who publicly associate themselves with Searchlight often suffer as a result. The latest victim of the "Curse of Searchlight" is Labour MP Jon Cruddas! Jon, the Labour MP for Dagenham joined the "Labour Friends of Searchlight" when he realised that his Dagenham parliamentary seat could be lost to the BNP at the next election. In the last local elections Jon divided his time between supporting Searchlight's campaign of hate against the BNP and promoting himself for the position of Deputy-Leader of the Labour Party.

Unfortunately for Jon the "Curse of Searchlight" struck and not only did the BNP increase its overall vote but Jon could only manage to scrape in third in the Deputy-Leadership contest finishing behind a former postman and a public school educated lawyer!

New TARGET did its best to frustrate Jon's campaign by leafleting over 300 Labour MPs with education packs about the Labour Friends of Searchlight and Jon's sinister friends in the Searchlight organisation itself. All of the candidates for the Deputy-Leadership received copies as well as Labours new leader, Gordon Brown!

All in all, it was a job well done!

New TARGET EXCLUSIVEWILL GABLE FACE PERJURY CHARGES OVER LIBEL CASE?

Perjury: "The act of lying or making false statements on a material matter under oath or affirmation in a court of law or in any sworn statements in writing".

The law of perjury is remarkably simple, deliberately lie, verbally or in writing to a court while under oath and you commit perjury!

Perjury is a serious crime because the witness has sworn to tell the truth and, for the credibility of the court, and the Justice system witness testimony must be relied on as being truthful.

In the early part of 2005, a man named Sidney Albert Chaney issued a writ for damages against Gerry Gable, Searchlight Information Services (SIS) and Mrs Sonia Gable, as a result of a leaflet issued by SIS making allegations of a sexual nature against Mr Chaney. Mr Chaney was at the time standing as a BNP candidate in Essex. Mr Chaney believes that as a direct result of the publication of the libellous leaflet his home was subjected to two arson attacks. In May of that year, Gerry Gable issued through his solicitors a "Defence" to the claim in which he stated "I did not publish the leaflet". Gable then signed the document.

The statement was a lie!

This "Defence" was then entered as an accurate and truthful document to Romford County Court!

At the hearing in Romford, Mrs Gable, the third defendant, had the case against her struck out (dismissed) and she was awarded costs against Mr Chaney.

To what extent the lies entered by Mr Gable as evidence had on the Judgement is not known but, it is fact that Mr Gable submitted false evidence in a case that led to the acquittal of his wife!

WILL GABLE FACE PERJURY CHARGES OVER LIBEL CASE?

Gable maintained this position for the best part of a year. Then, on the 10th of March 2006, just before his libel case was due to be held at the High Court in London, an "Amended Defence" was entered in which the defendant effectively admitted his perjury!

Section 52.2 of the Amended Defence states "It is admitted that the Second Defendant (Gerry Gable) published the Leaflet". This confession is repeated in Section 56 where it is stated "It is admitted that the Second Defendant published the Leaflet" and asked "That the reference to the Third Defendant (Mrs Gable) be struck from the section because the Claimant's claim against the Third Defendant had been struck out".

Yes, the claim against Mrs Gable had been struck out on the basis of a lie submitted by her husband!

The "Amended Defence" was signed by Gerry Gable as a "Statement of Truth".

Did Gable know in advance that Mr Chaney had irrefutable evidence that Gerry Gable had indeed published the leaflet? We wonder!

Four months later, on the 7th of July 2006, Gable enters a third witness statement in which he confesses, "I am a director of Searchlight Information Services and I together with SIS published the leaflet in respect of which these proceedings have been bought".

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE		Claim No. HQ05X01189
QUEEN'S BENCH DIVISION BETWEEN:
SIDNEY ALBERT CHANEY		Claimant
- and -
(1) SEARCHLIGHT INFORMATION SERVICES LIMITED
(2) GERRY GABLE		Defendants
THIRD WITNESS STATEMENT
by
GERRY GABLE
1. GERRY GABLE of 49 Herent Drive, Ilford, Essex, IG5 0H2 WILL SAY as follows:
1.	I, Gerry Gable, am a criminologist and a director of Searchlight Information Services Ltd ("SIS") and I together with SIS published the leaflet in respect of which these proceedings have been brought ("the Leaflet"). A true copy of this leaflet is exhibited as exhibit "GG1". I am duly authorised to make this witness statement of behalf of the Defendants.
2.	This is a claim for defamation brought by Sidney Chaney against myself (the Second Defendant) and SIS (the First Defendant).
3.	The Leaflet was published first to Essex Special Branch and the Essex Police Child Protection Team and then to local residents in the ward of Lee Chapel North ("the Ward") in Basildon, Essex. This took place in the lead-up to the local government elections in June

Mr Chaney has launched an appeal in the High Court, claiming that all Judgements based on Gable's initial defence submission should be reheard; he is also considering reporting the blatant perjury to the police. Often the police add the charge of "Perverting the Course of Justice" to that of perjury.

For some years now, courts have taken a dim view of defendants who commit perjury and a prison sentence of often the punishment. Jonathan Aitken, a former Tory MP was sentenced to 18 months in prison for lying during a libel trial, and the Tory Peer, Lord Archer, received a sentence of 4 years imprisonment for similar conduct.

Will Gable be next? ... Watch this space!

ELECTORAL COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE SEARCHLIGHT'S HATE CAMPAIGN

Following complaints about Searchlight's interference in the recent local authority elections, the Electoral Commission have launched an investigation.

Searchlight, along with several extreme left-wing trade unions are registered with the Commission as "Interested Third Parties" and as such have the right to campaign against political parties without having to stand candidates themselves. They are however, NOT allowed to campaign FOR a particular political party as this could cause problems with the cap on electoral spending by parties which is imposed by the Electoral Commission. So basically, Searchlight can campaign AGAINST the BNP but, it cannot, as an "Interested Third Party" campaign FOR a political party without that party adding the amount of money spent by Searchlight to their expense declaration! Searchlight may well have broken this regulation by recruiting celebrities to its "Stop the BNP" campaign such as Labour MP Jon Cruddas and Labour leader Gordon Brown!

Final week push against the BNP HELP WIN ST. ANDREW'S WARD, HORNCURCH FOR LABOUR

Wednesday 13 June

Meet at the Public Car Park, at the rear of the Elm Park Pub,
St. Nicholas Avenue, Elm Park at 6.30pm. 2 minute from Elm
Park Tube Station.

Come out of the station turn left walk down to the roundabout the pub is in front of you.

We wonder what the Electoral Commissioners will make of this prime example of Searchlight interfering with an election? The item on Searchlight's website clearly states "Help win St Andrews Ward, Hornchurch for LABOUR"

Is it any wonder that Searchlight are winning the battle for trade union funding when the only real opposition can't even publish a newsletter on a regular basis. Visitors to the UAF website who wish to download the LATEST UAF newsletter will find that it is in fact the Autumn 2005 issue.

TRUE COLOURS?

In recent years the Searchlight organisation has been desperately trying to convince the world that it has abandoned its extreme-left origins in an attempt to obtain respectability and funding and support from legitimate organisations such as the Labour Party and the Trade Unions. But from time to time the camouflage slips. Thus we discover Searchlight's "Stop the BNP" organiser in Lincoln is none other than Marc Glasscoe, a sworn enemy of the Labour Party and the local secretary of the extremist Socialist Party!

SOURCE OR SAUCE?

Plagiarism is always a risk to genuine journalists especially from those either too lazy or too incompetent to do their own research. But even this heinous crime can be forgiven if the original source is given the credit in the finished article. Unfortunately this is not the case with the nationalist group, "Third Position". Their magazine regularly publishes titbits about Searchlight, but they never credit New TARGET as the source of their information. Apparently the group are well known amongst British nationalists for claiming the credit for others research. What a Sauce!

SWP: "COME THE REVOLUTION"

No! The SWP are not about to launch a national revolution, but they are facing one!

Dissidents are questioning the leadership's increasing involvement with the RESPECT party. The Muslim dominated RESPECT continue to openly oppose gay rights and women's equality, and RESPECT leader George Galloway's love of wearing Saville Row suits does little to placate the "class warriors" of the core SWP.

Mutterings about the usefulness of "Gulags" have been heard at SWP Executive meetings and discussions about "purging the proletariat" have been held. But a tactic proven to win over the "masses" since the circuses of Roman times the SWP leadership have launched a distraction. Now the SWP are directing its members attention into attempting to hijack the Global Environment movement. It is hoped that if the "Proles" are busy infiltrating the Global Warming groups they will have less time to confront the SWP leadership about internal matters.

Whether we will ever hear John Rees singing at Wembley remains to be seen!
